

2011 Human Development Report Errata

The following are corrections of errors in the original print edition of the 2011 Human Development Report. Errors detected within six months of the publication of the Report are corrected in the on-line editions of the Report in all UN languages.

Back cover flap: “2011 HDI rank and change in rank from 2005 to 2011” should read: “2011 HDI rank and change in rank from 2010 to 2011”.

Back cover flap: Footnote “Arrows indicate upward or downward movement in the country’s ranking over 2005 – 2011.” should read: “Arrows indicate upward or downward movement in the country’s ranking over 2010 – 2011”.

Page 31, Figure 2.6: The axis legend should not include “(loss in the HDI due to inequality)”.

Page 42, Box 2.10, second paragraph: “Sweden is currently seventh in the Human Development Index (HDI), sixth best in human development loss due to inequality and first in the Gender Inequality Index.” should read: “Sweden is currently tenth in the Human Development Index (HDI), fifth best in human development loss due to inequality and first in the Gender Inequality Index.”

Page 68, second column, end of second para: “As Latvia and other countries have shown, the right legal framework can boost growth in the nonrenewable energy sector...” should read: “As Latvia and other countries have shown, the right legal framework can boost growth in the renewable energy sector...”.
